

WAR IN UKRAINE.

PUBLIC OPINION IN BELARUS,
UKRAINE AND RUSSIA

ROOM 116, OLD UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

July 2 2022, 12:30 PM – 2:30 PM

Inna Volosevych, Deputy Director, Info Sapiens (Ukraine)

Inna Volosevych holds MA in Sociology (with honors) from Kyiv Mohyla Academy National University. She has 19 years of experience in social research. Now she is Deputy Director of Info Sapiens, the largest Ukrainian research company after the representatives of the international corporations (according to the Ukrainian Marketing Association, as of 2020, we are ranked the 6th among all companies and the 1st among the Ukrainian companies).

continued on next page

Since the start of the full-scale war on February 24, 2022, Inna supervised more than 30 surveys on attitudes to war, the humanitarian and economic situation, migration intentions and experience, psychological state, violence, and other topics. Inna is a member of ESOMAR.

Alexey Levinson, Levada Center is head of the sociocultural research department of the Levada Center. He has been conducting sociological research in the USSR-Russia since 1966. PhD., author of more than 300 articles in scientific and socio-political journals, including those in Poland, Germany, Japan, and Hungary. He is a columnist for Russian newspapers and magazines. He has presented reports at conferences in Poland, Germany and Estonia on current issues of public opinion in Russia.

Andrei Vardomatski, Centre for East European Studies, University of Warsaw, Belarusian Analytical Workroom, Poland

30 years' experience of conducting of sociological research in Eastern Europe and CIS countries (Armenia, Belarus, Estonia, Georgia, Lithuania, Ukraine, Latvia, Russia, Moldova, Kirghizia, Russia). Quantitative all-national representative surveys. Focus groups – moderation and management. Management of interviewers network. Main topics- public opinion, values, geopolitical orientations, media, ad hoc research studies about actual problems, teaching in Universities. "Belarusian Gap" as a characteristic of the median position of Belarusian public opinion between Russian and Ukrainian.

Volodymyr Paniotto , Kyiv International Institute of Sociology, Ukraine is the General director of Kyiv International Institute of Sociology, professor of the National University of "Kyiv-Mohyla Academy". His principal works concern research methodology (survey methods, exit-polls methodology, data validity and reliability); modeling and simulation of social processes; poverty assessment; dynamic of xenophobia, happiness, public opinion. He has published 12 books and about 300 articles and chapters.

Anton Grushetskyi, Kyiv International Institute of Sociology, Ukraine

deputy executive director of Kyiv International Institute of Sociology (KIIS). Has master's degree in sociology (2011, National university of Kyiv-Mohyla Academy, Ukraine). Over the last 14 years works in KIIS and was involved in hundreds of different national and local surveys dedicated to study Ukraine's population different views. Special interest and involvement - sociopolitical and electoral studies.

Lev Gudkov, Levada Center

PhD in philosophy, professor, scientific director of the Levada Center, editor-in-chief of the "Public Opinion Bulletin" journal. His research interests include the transformation of post-Soviet society, the sociology of ethno-national relations, and the sociology of literature and culture. He is an author and participant in the main projects of the Levada Center for the study of public opinion in Russia: "The Soviet common man, 1989-2022" (analysis of human anthropology of totalitarian society during institutional collapse), "Anti-Semitism and xenophobia in Russia" (1990-2022), "Post-Soviet youth: continuity and gaps between generations" (1994-2021),

continued on next page

"Political attitudes of the Russian population and electoral behavior" (1993-2020) and others. The most important recent publications: "Literature as a social institution"; (Moscow, NLO, 2020), "Recurring totalitarianism"; (Moscow, NLO, 2022, vol. 1-2), "The illusion of choice: 30 years of post-Soviet Russia";. Riga, 2021.

Discussant

Andrei Vardomatski

Centre for East European Studies,
University of Warsaw, Belarusian
Analytical Workroom, Poland

Ministry of Foreign Affairs
Republic of Poland

Zadanie publiczne finansowane przez Ministerstwo Spraw Zagranicznych RP w konkursie „Dyplomacja publiczna 2022”

“Public task financed by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Poland within the grant competition “Public Diplomacy 2022””